

Rick Ferrell (in uniform) talks to legendary White Sox catcher Ray Schalk two days before Ferrell tied Schalk's record, 1945

Brothers Rick and Wes Ferrell played for the Senators in 1937 and 1938 and lived in apartment 601 (the same apartment occupied by Huey Long in 1934 and 1935). Wes is considered one of the best hitting pitchers in baseball history. He holds the record for the most runs by a pitcher in a season (9) and in a career (38). Rick, a record setting catcher, was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1984.

The “Bachelor’s Life”

In 1933, Pitcher Bobby Burke, Centerfielder Fred Schulte, and Catcher Luke Sewell lived at the Broadmoor. The Washington Post ran an entertaining feature story on the three players living the “Bachelor’s Life” while sharing an apartment at the Broadmoor.
